

Middlewich Heritage Trust Talks Programme 2024-2025

Venue:

Royal British Legion, 100 Lewin St, Middlewich
CW10 9AS

Easy to find Free Car Parking Bar available

All talks commence at 7.00 p.m.

Entry: £4 for non-members, £2 for members

For more information:

Email: middlewich.heritage.trust@gmail.com

Tel: 07582 646 080

12 September: Ken Kingston—Middlewich Pubs

A look at the changing facilities and services provided by Middlewich public houses in the last 300-400 years.

Sponsor: The White Bear

10 October: Geoff Page—The missing fourteen

The discovery of the names of the men who were missed from the town's war memorial and the search in Europe for their graves.

Sponsor: D&D Autos

14 November: Glynn Walker—The rise and fall of Middlewich & Winsford Co-op

How the Co-op came to lose its overwhelming dominance in the retail sector.

Sponsor: Tony's Fresh Fish

9 January: Mike Walton—Tales from the cemetery

A journey through the burial record and the interesting stories on the gravestones.

Sponsor: Mayflower Blooms

13 February: Steve Broadfoot—The life and times of John Thom

A story which begins with Napoleon and ends with a death at sea.

Sponsor: Martin's M.O.T. Test Centre

13 March: David Nellist—Winsford's Inspector of Nuisances

How Winsford's Inspector of Nuisances, a prominent local Primitive Methodist preacher, tackled Winsford's many problems in the late 19th & early 20th century.

Sponsor: Temptations

10 April: Iain Davidson—Salt Travels

The routes used to distribute salt away from Cheshire and their evolution over time. Where has salt been, and what has it experienced on these journeys?

Sponsor: Cynthia's Patisserie